

1. Is it possible that clubs have more autonomy in sending their athletes onto international competition when they cover the cost not the NPC.

2. One point scoring system valid all over the world- now it is impossible compare points results from different competitions, as every organizer uses different formula for scoring points.

Kind regards
Anna Zurowska